—The Young People's Society of Westminster Church will hold a business meeting Monday evening in the Church Parlor. After the executive meeting there will be an exhibition of stereopticon views.

—What has become of the Law and Order League? Have any unlicensed saloons been closed, or has the sale of liquor on Sunday been stopped? The public could be glad to hear from the executive committee.

—Westminster Church will be closed for a few weeks, after to-morrow, which is Communion Sunday. Repairs are to be made in the auditorium, and while the work is in progress, the Sunday-school will be held in the Church Parlor.

—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Law and Order League, held at the house of Mr. Batchelder, on Tuesday night last, Mr. Herbert H. Biddulph was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Hubbell.

—A Garden Party will be held on Mr. Nevins' lawn (Moses' Dodd property), Washington street, by the Ladies of the Church of the Sacred Heart, this afternoon and evening, commencing at 2 o'clock. A pleasant time is anticipated.

—The old Washington Headquarters on Washington avenue, caught fire from the chimney on Tuesday morning, and burned away part of the floor and mantle piece. The fire was extinguished without the assistance of the department. Joseph Tilley, a teamster, now occupies the house.

—The new gymnasium recently equipped in the rooms of the Reform Club, seems to take well among the young men. Five pairs of dumb-bells, five pairs of Indian clubs, a lifting and rowing machine, swinging rings, and a horizontal bar make up the present amusements. Others will be added when advisable.

—Bloomfield Hose Company, No. 1, will hold their first picnic at Weaver's Grove on the afternoon and evening of August 20. The Committee having in charge propose to make the same one of the finest ever held in Bloomfield, and as the proceeds are to be devoted to the procurement of a new hose carriage, they rely upon the citizens to aid them.

—The Westminster Society of Young People have arranged for a "Field Day" next week. Prof. C. M. Davis has consented to accompany the party which will probably make Upper Montclair its basis of operations and have a delightful time with all sorts of bugs, flowers, and stones. No one is more competent than Prof. Davis to conduct such an excursion, and the Society anticipates much pleasure from it.

—Numerous Bloomfielders have declared their intention of improving the opportunity for a cheap trip to Delaware Water Gap on August 5th. Those who went to this delightful resort last year were well pleased with the arrangements of the manager, Mr. Griffith, and as experience is the best teacher, there is no doubt that the comfort of the passengers will be well looked after. The price of the round trip is only $2.00; train leaves Bloomfield at 7.19 a. m.

—A truthful and graphic record of the lives of James G. Blaine and John A. Logan, Republican candidates for President and Vice-President, compiled by Col. Thos. W. Knox is just out. Mr. William P. Lyon has purchased several of the books for distribution. One each has been presented to the Truck Company and the Reform Club for their reading rooms. The work contains an authentic, impartial and complete history of their public and private career from boyhood to the present day. It is published in one volume, and contains over 500 pages. An agent in this locality is needed.

Justice Notes.

On Sunday evening, about 6 o'clock, four men were arrested and brought before Justice Hagemann, charged by Mr. Frank R. Batchelder with being drunk and disorderly in front of Schilling's Hotel, on Bloomfield avenue. When arraigned before the Justice they were told the nature of the complaint, they became noisy, and began to use profane language. One young man who said he had no name, afterward proved to be Keller, living in Caldwell, was very abusive, and began cutting up antics. They made no perfect defense, first insisting upon a jury trial, but when informed by the court that a jury could not be obtained he would adjourn the trial until the following day. They finally waived that right, and desired an immediate hearing. From the evidence of Mr. Batchelder, Mr. Biddulph and Mr. Sander son, the defendants not desiring to be sworn, were found guilty as charged, and fined $15, which they paid, preferring payment to jail. The defendants intend to certify. Three of the defendants were well dressed men, while Keller was not of such appearance.

On Wednesday evening a number of persons assembled at Judge Hagemann's Court to hear the cases of the State vs. Michael Graham, who is charged by officers Foster and Harvey with assault, but the Prosecutor of the Pleas refused to allow Graham out of jail, as he is held there by an indictment.

The civil suit of Church vs. Crump Label Factory was decided by Justice Hagemann on Thursday in favor of the defendant company. The court holding that the plaintiff failed to comply with the terms and conditions of his contract of hiring. The decision of this suit is eagerly watched by the employees of the company.

Democratic Campaign Club.

Pursuant to a call received last week, about forty gentlemen met in the rooms over Carl's store on Thursday evening and organized a Cleveland and Hendricks campaign club and elected the following officers: President, William Appar; Vice-President, Edwin A. Rayner; Secretary, J. M. Unangst; Treasurer, Mr. Van Fleet. The meeting adjourned to meet on next Thursday at same place, to which all citizens in favor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks are cordially invited. The roll is open for the enrollment of any additional names.

The Elm Leaf Beetle.

This pest, which has done so much damage in other parts of the country, has begun its work of depredation upon the elms of our village. Here and there trees may be seen, whose leaves show only the net work, the succulent part having been entirely consumed. But generally the insects do not appear in sufficient numbers to strip a tree, so that we may hope that no lasting injury will be done, unless there is a return of the beetle next year. The report of the National Commissioner of Agriculture contains an account, by the Entomologist, of the nature and habits of this insect, and of its depredations. It belongs to the beetle family, Coleoptera—rejoicing in the name of Galeruca zanthochelena, and while it does not confine its favors to any particular kind of elm, it rejoices mostly in the imported; it being itself an importation, probably as early as 1837. According to Prof. Riley, the eggs are deposited by the beetle at various times from May to August, on the under side of the leaf, in a group of from five to twenty or more. In about a week the group (or larva) comes out and immediately begins to eat. With a glass of no great magnifying power, these little pests can be distinctly seen, moving their heads from side to side as they bite out the green part of the leaf, leaving only the veins. It keeps at this work for two weeks, then when full-grown descends the trunk of the tree, and changing to a pupa shelters itself under whatever is near the bark. The pupa (or semi chrysalis) state lasts from six to ten days, when it changes to a beetle. There are three or four annual generations of the insect, according to the character of its destructive work, but accomplishes comparatively little damage. In September the beetle prepares for the winter in hollow trees, in the ground, or under old leaves, and remains dormant until the following spring.

The various means prepared for their destruction are too complicated to be practical. Perhaps their parasitic and other enemies may accomplish this; it certainly seems as if man could do nothing in the case.

Montclair Squibs.

Mr. Geo. Inness, Jr., returned from his European trip, on the steamship Oregon, arriving Sunday afternoon, 20th.

Work has been begun on the bell-tower, back of the Truck House, and it will be rushed through. A lock-up will be provided on the lower floor.

At the Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the N. J. State Dental Society, held at the Coleman House, Asbury Park, Dr. A. J. Wright was elected a member of the Executive Committee, and Dr. S. C. G. Watkins was elected a delegate to the American Dental Association, which meets at Saratoga in August.

The Harvest Home Festival will be held in the grove in Upper Montclair on Thursday, August 7th, from 1 to 10 p. m. During the afternoon a sack race, pony riding, a Punch and Judy show, and other special amusements for the little folks will be given. In the evening the grove will be illuminated by calcium lights and many varied hued lanterns. A Country Store, the Art Tent, the Oriental Bazaar will attract as heretofore. The bill of fare at the restaurant will provide (as usual) broiled chicken and clam chowder as specialties, and many other seasonable eatables. This year a body of trained waiters will be employed so that all may be assured of prompt attention. Special late trains will be run to Bloomfield, and stage lines from Montclair. Next week a more detailed account of the plans will be given.

John Hill.

The death of ex-Congressman John Hill, at Boonton, on Thursday morning, caused a profound feeling of grief throughout the entire State. Mr. Hill has been suffering with Bright's disease for several months, but not until the past few weeks has he been confined to his room. About one month since he was present at the Presbyterian Sunday-school anniversary and made a few short remarks. In forty years he has only missed one of these gatherings. During all this time he has held the office of superintendent of the school. The following is a short account of his life:

John Hill was born at Catskill, N. Y., June 10, 1821. His father for several years was Treasurer of Catskill county. His education was gained in a private school. After completing his education he joined in various mercantile pursuits. He removed to New Jersey about 1845, settling at Boonton, where he became connected with the iron works and was interested in other lines of business. He sat in the State Assembly in the years 1861, 1862 and 1866. During the latter term he served as Speaker of the House. During the war of the rebellion Mr. Hill was very active in raising troops for the North. He was first elected a Representative from New Jersey to the Fortieth Congress on the Republican ticket. He was re-elected to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses. His last term in Congress was from 1881 to 1883. It was during this term that he succeeded in having passed the two cent postage clause in the Post Office Appropriation bill. This measure, as also the abolishment of the franking privilege and the introduction of the one cent postal cards, have been due almost solely to Mr. Hill. His strenuous efforts toward postal reform of all kinds have earned for him the title of the father of cheap postage in America. At the last Republican gubernatorial Convention John Hill was a prominent candidate against Judge Dixon. He had many friends in the Convention, but as he was a pronounced temperance man, it was not deemed expedient to nominate him.—Newark News.

BROKEN STONE

Establish the grade on Broad Street; and then repair it with instead of the present material used which is dredged from the bottom of a river, and is worn out every year.

If Broken Stone is good enough for repairing Bloomfield Avenue why is it not economy to use the same material on Broad and other streets where the heavy travel comes, especially as it costs but little more and will wear two or three times as long as the gravel now used.
